

WELCOME TO: BATH CITY

Bath City Football Club was founded in 1895. They played in the Western League until their entry into the Southern League in 1921, the same season as Yeovil. The attendance record at Twerton Park, which has one of the finest playing surfaces in the League, is 18,000.

Many famous names have donned the 'Black and White' of Bath over the years, Stan Mortenson (Blackpool), Ian Black (Fulham), Ian MacFarlane (Leicester City) and Charlie Fleming are but a few.

Bath won the Southern League Championship in 1959/60 with 67 points from a possible 84, Oxford United being runners-up with 54 points. They have not been so successful in the Southern League Cup, their best performance in recent seasons was in 1958/59, when they lost to Hereford United in the final.

Over the seasons Yeovil and Bath have played against each other in no less than NINE different competitions, including the Floodlight League. Matches between the two Somerset clubs have always been keenly fought, as Yeovil's record against Bath over the last 34 years denotes:

P 117 W 58 D 22 L 37 F 247 A 198.

In the F.A. Cup Bath have beaten 3 Football League clubs, Notts. County, Southend United and Newport County.

Next season Bath will be back in the Premier Division of the Southern League, as they clinched promotion last Saturday with a well-deserved 3-1 victory over Wisbech Town.
